NEGOMBO

SRI LANKA

Nan Old Dutch N settlement located on the western coast of Sri Lanka, is an ideal place to rejuvenate before you set out to explore the rest of Sri Lanka. The beaches, the lagoon and remains of the colonial past are Negombos main attractions. A number of ornate Portuguese churches present here earned Negombo another title, Little Rome. The Katuwapitiya Church and the Grand Street Church are the two biggest parishes in Negombo. The Dutch Fort Gate constructed in 1672 and the Dutch Canal are other two highlights here. The Dutch Canal, about 100 Km long, is still being used to this day and offers a different perspective of the town. Being a traditional fishing town, Negombo is a food lovers dream, with plenty of seafood available. Try some from your resort or visit a local restaurant. The yellow, sandy beaches and the friendly atmosphere of this fishing town provide a perfect setting to get introduced to the Sri Lankan way of life. Set aside a day on arrival or before return to explore Negombo.

he Rajasthani capital got its coat of pink paint to impress Prince Edward of Wales and remained ever since as a mark of welcome to the city's visitors. Today the Pink City has lots in store from ancient monuments to great shopping and adventure.

Hawa Mahal or Palace of Winds is the city's most distinctive landmark. The highlight: the 953 windows through which the royal women got a peek into everyday life. A ten-minute drive from here will take you to the famous Amber Fort, a beautiful structure built with red and white sandstone. The fort is a display of ancient India's architectural marvel. Sheesh Mahal, decorated with thousands of mirror tiles and coloured glass pieces, is one of the fort's attractions.

Infinity think tank Sector V's most abiding landmark

Think Tank was Kolkata's first intelligent IT empowered building. Even after 18 years, it remains an iconic and a landmark project that set the tone for future developments.

infinity

Infinity Group - AN INTRODUCTION

Our journey started in 2000 with 'Think Tank' which is considered today to be a first of its kind, Intelligent IT infrastructure of Eastern India. Since then, there have been a slew of inspiring IT infrastructure projects such as Infinity Benchmark including Infinity Business Centre, Godrej Waterside and Infinity IT Lagoon, each bearing the signature Infinity stamp of being Green, Intelligent and crafted with care for tomorrow.

From IT infrastructure, our tryst has taken us to the realm of residential and commercial developments as well. Some of our upcoming projects include green townships in Assam called Signature Estates and Infinity Heights, the very iconic Krishna Bhumi in Vrindavan, to name just a few.

At Infinity, we take our Corporate Social Responsibility seriously. Giving back to society and nation building are both our commitment and passion.

At Infinity, we truly believe and are driven by the maxim,
'Infinite Possibilities!'
